cannot reach the seat of the disease.
Catarrh is blood or constitutional dis-

In Memoriam

In loving remembrance of little Lorrine Selma Hutzler, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hutzler; born,
June 28, 1912; died July 17, 1912.

In life we are to death so near
That we should not grieve,
If one that was to us so dear
From us will take its leave.

So it was with little Lorine;
She has left you all too soon,
Left you all here in your sorrow;
Her death o'er you has cast a gloom.

She has gone from you forever
And you no more will see her here,
You think there is no greater sorrow
For to you she was so dear.

Indeed she was so dear to you
It's hard, so very hard,
Indeed all loved her so true
And yet you had to part.

Now your hearts are sore and weary
But it will not be for aye,
Though now all is dark and dreary
There'll come a gladsome day.

Once there'll be a glad tomorrow
And you'll see her face to face,
From your hearts you'll banish sorrow.

When your darling you'll embrace.

From a little second cousin,

Olivia C. Hutzler.

Flying Men Fall

victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles just like other people, with like results in loss of appetite, backache, nervousness, headache, and tired listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters" he writes,
"did more to give me new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. Its folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at W. H. Windrow's.

Mr. Jacob Reily received his new auto on last Monday. It is a fine looking car.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ney after spending a few days with the family of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ney returned to Mr. Valentine Guly an old settler of evening at 6 o'clock at the age of 84 years. Mr. Guly has been living here in this section for 60 years. He was well known throughout the country by the settlers and that he was an honest and upright man. He is survived by his wife and nine children to mourn his loss. He was buried on

Seemed to Give Him a New Stomach.

"I suffered intensely after eating and no medicine or treatment I tried seemed to do any good," writes H. M.
Youngsters, Editor of The Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "The first few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gave me surprising relief and the second bottle seemed to give me

Stands Ahead

There is something about Hunt's Lightning Oil that no other Liniment possesses. Others may be good, but it is surely the best. It does all you recommend it for, and more. For Sprains it has no equal on earth. It stands head on my medicine shelf.

Very truly yours,
T. J. BROWNLOW,
Livingston, Tenn.

Little Willie overheard his father speak of a man who was weighed in the balance and found wanting. "Maybe he forgot to drop a penny in the slot," suggested Willie.

Saved Him

"It didn't kill me but I think it would if it had not been for Hunt's Cure. I was tired, miserable and well nigh used up when I commenced using it for an old and severe case of Eczema.
One application relieved and box cured me. I believe Hunt's Cure will cure any form of itching known to mankind."

Mr. Albert Tschirhart, of Noonan and Miss Fannie Kilhorn of this place, were happily married on Tuesday morning, July 30, 1912, at St. Louis Catholic Church. Rev. Father Lenzen performed the nuptial ceremony. The attendants were: Mr. Julius Tschirhart, and Miss Annie Kilhorn, and Mr. Anton Kilhorn and Miss Willie Renken. After the ceremony the bridal party and invited guests repaired to the hospitable home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Kilhorn Sr., where a fine wedding dinner was partaken, and the rest of the day was pleasantly spent in feasting and celebrating the happy event. A grand free wedding dance was tendered the young couple at night at the Empire Opera House. We join the many friends in wishing the happy young couple a long, a happy and prosperous married life. Mr. and Mrs. Tschirhart will make their future home at Noonan.

Hay fever and asthma make a August a month of intense suffering to many people. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound gives prompt ease and relief, and is soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes. Wm. M. Merethew, N. Seaport, Me., says: "I suffered with asthma for many years, and have used many a doctor's prescription without avail. A few doses of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound relieved me and less than a bottle caused a complete cure. I am glad to let others know what Foley's Honey and Tar Compound has done for me." Neither is it likely that women with large feet have any desires to leave footprints on the sands of time.

Stepping on a rusty nail has been the cause of many cases of lockjaw. The nail was not so much the fault as neglect of the wound. If such wounds were promptly cleansed and BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT applied there would be no lockjaw, as the antiseptic properties of the liniment would counteract the poison and the wound would heal quickly. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

Making the best of it is not exceedingly satisfying when things go wrong.

Sallow complexion comes from bilious impurities in the blood and the fault lies with the liver and bowels; they are torpid. The medicine that gives results in such cases is HERBINE. It is a fine liver stimulant and bowel regulator. Price 50c. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

D. C. Bybee, teaming contractor living at 669 Keeling Court, Canton, Ill., is now well rid of a severe and annoying case of kidney trouble. His back pained and he was bothered with headaches and dizzy spells. "I took Foley Kidney Pills just as directed and in a few days I felt much better. My life and strength seemed to come back, my backache left me, I slept well, and I got up free from headache and dizzy spells. I am now all over my trouble and recommend Foley Kidney Pills to everyone."

People who don't teach devote a good deal of time to finding fault with the schools.

Bites of poisonous insects that cause the flesh to swell up must be treated with a healing antiseptic that will counteract the poison and heal the wound. BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT answers every requirement in such cases. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

It is hard to make consumption of green corn on the cob a dignified performance.

Breeders of fine horses prefer BAL- LARD'S SNOW LINIMENT for all cuts, wounds or sores on their stock, because it acts both mildly and quickly and heals an ordinary wound without a scar. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

As a general thing the people who don't take vacation trips can't afford to.

ARE you telling your friends about Hondo's Carnival, Sept. 9th to 14th?

We are reliably informed that "dry" farming has no reference to the propagation of prohibitionists!

THE Texas Dry Farming Congress convenes in Fourth Annual session at Uvalde August 20, 21 and 22nd. There should be a big attendance from Medina County, but the chances are our farmers will be too busy gathering their dry-farmed crops to devote much time to the congress.

It has been suggested to the Anvil Herald that a good way to boost the Fair and at the same time encourage the boys and girls of the farm is to offer a prize for the best exhibit from any member of the boys' and girls' corn and cotton clubs of the county. This is a good suggestion which we hope the Fair management will take advantage of.

THE State Democratic Convention will convene at San Antonio next Tuesday. It is anticipated that a bunch of sore-headed malcontents of the Cone Johnson kind will try to make trouble this time as they did two years ago at Galveston over the adoption of a platform. Some people seem to relish being demolished by a steam roller. Governor Colquitt won a clear cut and decisive victory at the polis July 27th and it is only the worst kind of political free-booters who would try to rob him of the fruits of his victory.

"HUDSON" ANNOUNCEMENT

SEE THE TRIANGLE ON THE RADIATOR

1913

In reading the claims made for this car, consider how much is at stake on it. The HUDSON Company has millions at stake. The future of the Hudson will depend entirely on this car's performance.

Howard E. Coffin, now the leading American designer, has all his prestige and future fame tied up to this car which represents his idea of perfection. And 48 engineers in the front rank of this industry have all agreed that the HUDSON "37" represents their highest accomplishment. The future of all of them depends on this car's making good. No one man's personality, no one man's experience, can overshadow that of either of the other 47, except in the details which he knows better than the others know. Such is the pedigree of the New HUDSON CARS. It is nothing short of a romance of engineering achievement. No other automobile ever so completely represented what many trained men could do. None other ever bore such unmistakable evidences of advancement and quality.

We are reliably informed that "dry" farming has no reference to the propagation of prohibitionists!

THE Texas Dry Farming Congress convenes in Fourth Annual session at Uvalde August 20, 21 and 22nd. There should be a big attendance from Medina County, but the chances are our farmers will be too busy gathering their dry-farmed crops to devote much time to the congress.

You awake with a mean, nasty taste in the mouth, which reminds you that your stomach is in a bad condition. It should also remind you that there is nothing so good for a disordered stomach as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

They build up the system, assist nature to restore natural conditions, and are so gentle in their action that one hardly realizes a medicine was taken. Chamberlain's Tablets are sold everywhere. Price 25c.

WOMEN THROW EGGS AT "WET" WORKERS AT INDIANA POLLS

Terre Haute, Ind.—At a recent prohibition election in Sugar Creek township, Vigo county, women stood at the polls and threw eggs at workers among the antis. Donn Roberts, city engineer of Terre Haute, and Frank Kelly, a Terre Haute attorney, were forced to leave the polls by the shower of eggs. As a result of the women's misguided energy, the licensed saloon won in the election by a majority of 969 out of 1,897 votes.

PROHIBITIONISTS APPEAL TO EUROPE FOR PETITION NAMES

Augusta, Me.—Discouraged in their efforts to get petitions signed in Maine asking for the retention of the prohibitory amendment to the constitution, the prohibitionists have appealed to Europeans for signatures to a petition. This petition was signed by men in nearly every country of Europe and will be presented to the legislature when it assembles. It is hardly probable that the petition will have any effect on the people of Maine who have not been accustomed to go to Europe to ask how their state should be governed.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE RAISES A $15,000 LEGISLATIVE FUND

Baltimore, Md.—The Anti-Saloon league of Maryland has received enough subscriptions to complete its special campaign fund of $10,000 and thereby secures $6,000 more which was offered by five friends of the cause. The money thus collected will be used to influence legislation against the sale of liquor in Maryland without regard to the wishes of the people of the state. The liquor interests in Maryland will submit a corrupt practices act to the general assembly in an effort to compel a public statement of the use to be made of all monies used for campaign purposes.

Our idea of a resourceful woman is one who can stand her family skeleton in a corner of the parlor and make folks believe it is bric-a-brac.

BACHELORS' RIGHTS

Time for Them to Organize a Political Club.

Member of This Down-Trodden Class Sets Forth the Evidences of a Conspiracy to Drive Them Into Matrimony.

"I belong to the most oppressed and downtrodden class on the face of the globe," said the confirmed bachelor. "It is time that all sufferers of my class got together and demanded our rights. I propose to organize a bachelors' political club and to demand of one of the great parties as the price of our support that it pledge itself to rectify some of the abuses under which we suffer."

"Tradespeople of every kind seem to think that the bachelor has no rights which they are bound to respect. He is forced to put up with inferior service, discourtesies and second class commodities. There seems to be a conspiracy to drive him into matrimony. If he dares to complain of any of the abuses to which he is subjected he is told that it serves him right for being a bachelor!"

"Having no home of his own, he is at the mercy of those who purvey what he requires. Knowing that he has no recourse, they continually give him the worst of it. There are the laundries, for instance. Though the bachelor is their best customer, they never seek to please him. A few of them pretend to darn his socks and sew on his buttons, but the darning is always so lumpy that he can't wear the socks—darning is too mild an expulsive to describe what they do—and the buttons never match the other buttons and never fit the buttonholes."

"Then there are the restaurants. At comparatively few of them can one get a decent cup of coffee. And coffee is the mainstay of the bachelor's existence—coffee and sinkers. If complaint is made, the restaurant manager scornfully retorts that he buys the very best coffee. This may be true, but a mighty poor beverage can be made from expensive coffee if the maker does his worst."

"The pie trust is probably to blame for the decay of the once noble art of pie making, but the householder does not have to subsist on factory pies. The bachelor does. No cafe now offers the blond and toothsome pumpkin pie of glorious memory, but many of them sell a swarthy brunette concoction that tastes of the can and cottonseed oil."

"Consider, too, the bachelor's room! Unless he is a plutocrat and can afford to patronize the big hotels he must put up with the dingiest and stuffiest quarters in the small lodging houses and private homes. The large, light, airy rooms are reserved for couples. His room, too commonly has a cracked mirror, a broken water pitcher, a decrepit rocking chair and a sensible bed in it, with a framed crayon portrait of the landlady's first husband hanging on the wall. There is a single gas jet suspended from the center of the ceiling at such a height that he has to mount in the rickety rocker to light it."

"Those I have cited are not a tithe of the evils that the bachelor is forced to endure, but they are enough to furnish the basis of a ringing political platform. Upon these we shall go before the national convention and demand that something be done to right out wrongs. If the old parties refuse to consider our claims we shall support the suffragettes, who number among them, I am told, thousands of bachelor maids." These should rally to our standard out of sympathy and because of a hope"—Chicago News.

Impoverished Crowd.

On the opening night of a play in which he was interested, Frank P. Morse, the theatrical man, invited to breakfast with him the following morning in a prominent Washington hotel half a dozen friends, among whom were Representative Dorsey W. Shackleford, Ralph A. Graves and several other prominent men.

The party enjoyed the breakfast, which had been ordered by Morse with rare taste and discrimination; but at its conclusion, the waiter made the mistake of handing the bill to Graves.

"Go round to the other side of the table," said Graves, "and give that to Mr. Morse."

The host accepted the bill smilingly; but suddenly assumed a look of great distress. "Now, waiter," he said as calmly as he could, "go round among the guests and borrow enough to pay this. I'm broke."—The Sunday Magazine.

Queer Business for Woman.

Mrs. Ellen Rose is a rival of the "Iron Woman" who lives in Buena Vista, Pa., is engaged in pumping the sand and coal from the bottom of the Susquehanna river. She is over seventy years of age, but she visits her force of 15 workmen several times a day to see that the business is being well done.

Cruel Papa.

"Papa says if I give up my singing lessons he will present me with a pair of diamond earrings."

"You have never worn earrings, have you?"

"No; I should have to have my ears pierced."

"Ah; yes, I see his idea. He wants to pay you back in your own coin!"—Western Christian Advocate.

Paint Now

If you ought to have painted last year and waited for paint to come down, how much do you think you made?

You'll buy an extra gallon this year. There's $5 or $6 for paint and labor. You think you won't, but you will; you can't stretch paint.

It is always so: the longer you wait, the more paint and wages. Besides what paint is for. What is it for?

From Falfurrias.

Falfurrias, Texas, July 18, 1912.

Miller Brothers Company,

Falfurrias, Texas.

I left Hondo Texas, in a wagon, on July 1st 1912 and drove through the country to Falfurrias, Texas. In driving through I stopped one day at Matthis, Texas; one day at Sandia and one day in Alice. I arrived in Falfurrias on Saturday, the 13th. Soon after arriving I met the Miller Brothers and we arranged to drive to Copita at noon and after dinner drove over the country and inspected the crops and found cotton and feed crops very fine.

I consider the Copita Country an ideal farming country with good land and an abundance of good water easily obtained. After spending the day in the Copita Country, we returned to Falfurrias and had a good night's rest at the Park Hotel and by an arrangement with Mr. Garland Miller, we met at his office on the following day and drove over his home-place and shared his hospitality for an hour. In order for us to get a better view of the surrounding country, he invited us to his roof garden and there we had a view of one of Mr. Lasater's fine dairy farms and also a splendid view of the city of Falfurrias, then back to the hotel for dinner.

Mr. Miller agreed to call for us at 2:30 and carry us out to see the fine dairy herds and milk stations of his brother-in-law, Mr. Lasater. After arriving at the station, we found one of the finest Jersey Herds, imported from the Island of Jersey, our eyes ever looked upon, and found the management up to date, as we consider, and looked over his ideal home and water-works, and wound up by visiting his fine herd of Tamworth hogs. We passed back through his fine farm and saw fine crops growing.

We consider that Mr. Lasater and Miller Brothers are doing a great deal for the development of this country. After looking over this country, we do not see one word of inflation in Miller Brothers literature. In fact, the half has not been told about what can be done in the Falfurrias County with diversification and good management. Anyone who studies the fine breeds of horses, mules, hereford cattle, jersey cattle, hogs and sheep which they have here, and the cotton, sorghum cane, kaffir corn, milo maize, cowpeas and spanish peanuts and the fruit development, will be convinced of this.

Yours truly,

A. J. SWARINGEN.

Missionary Society.

The Missionary Society met at the Methodist Church Monday afternoon, Aug. 5, 1912, with the President in the chair. The subject for the evening's lesson was Service.

The meeting was opened by singing "Work for the Night is Coming," followed by Scripture reading, Mat. 6: 19, 34. Work among the Indians was read responsively by the members. Our immigrants work was freely discussed. So many members were absent and so few officers present there were very few reports. Mrs. Monkhouse reported $9.45 sent to the Conference treasurer of the Foreign department. Home Mission treasurer reported $9.70 sent to Conference treasurer of Home Missions. The society decided to buy 5¢ worth of ice each Sunday for the Church as long as necessary. $1.60 donation was given.

The society adjourned by repeating the Lord's prayer.

Philathea Class.

The Philathea class met with Mrs. Henderson Tuesday July 30. The president being absent Mrs. J. A. Horger, as Vice President, had charge of the preliminary exercises. The day being an unusually warm one and so many of the members being out of town, a number having gone to Corpus and other summer resorts, the attendance was not as good as usual, still sufficient were present to insure a very interesting lesson, and the members showed to have studied it. Rev. Darby and the Pres. Mrs. T. J. Barnes both being absent the lesson was conducted by Mrs. Monkhouse.

The class will meet on Aug. 13, with Miss Emma Miller and the members will please answer to roll call with scripture verse containing the word "Kingdom". Also the class on Sunday will answer with the same.

Mrs. Henderson served delicious punch and lady fingers, Miss Nellie Cooper presided at the punch bowl assisted by Misses Lucy Buford and Isabelle Henderson.
